Incentivized fundraising

Singles Project is a fundraising incentive that you can offer your community. We are not a replacement for your day-to-day fundraising software.

We create added value by providing a tangible service – a dating community connected through common causes – that serves as an independent incentive for people to make a donation to you.

Our incentive appeals to both current donors for an extra donation, as well as people who are part of your broader community and list who have thought about giving but haven't taken the final step of doing so.
